INTRODUCTION

Every record list that you have permission to view in RiskMan can be configured to suit your requirements. Further to this, each record list can be configured individually, meaning that for example if you can see the

- Entered Incidents page,
- Incident Inbox page, and
- Posted Incidents page

...you can set each one up with its own unique configuration.

You are able to:

- Change the columns being displayed, their widths, and the order in which they appear
- Change the number of rows shown per page
- Change the way the list is sorted, grouped, and filtered
- Save the way you've configured the page as a "View", and switch between your personally configured views
- Export the resulting list to a Microsoft Excel file if you wish

This guide also explains list functionality which is based on user permissions, so you might not have permission to some of these functions (it depends on your level of access). These include:

- Ability to generate a "Letter", based on an existing record in a register
- Ability to clone or update a record
- Ability to reassign ownership of a record

(i) Note

This information in this guide applies to any register, however we have used an Incident register in the screenshots as it is the most universal register.

- You cannot modify these columns; they will always be displayed as-is.
- 2 Columns that you can change: Column order, widths, show/hide, etc
- 6 Pagination info: Total records and page count
- Pagination: Change the number of rows showing per page; navigate to first / previous / next / last page
- Toolbar: When you select a record, the available functions/options for working with that record appear here
- 6 Toolbar: Options for configuring and working with your list overall

The fixed columns: Explanation

- "Administrative" status of the record. Click the 论 icon for more information.
- Your personal viewing status of the record. Green: You've never opened it. Grey: You have opened it. Red: Since you last opened it, someone else has modified it. Also, click the icon to open the Review History of the record.
- The paperclip tells you there is at least 1 document attached to the record
- Obist is short for Distribution List. Usually it will say None. In this example, there is a number 1 in one of the rows. This represents the number of users who have been put on the Distribution List for that record who have not yet viewed it. This column is also a shortcut click it to distribute the record to other users.
- 6 Record selection check box: Tick the box to select a record, and the options in the toolbar will appear.
- ID number: Click on the record's ID number to open it. Note that you do not need to check the record's selection box before clicking the ID number!

- Uncheck to remove column
- 2 Scroll through the list of fields and check each one you want to display as a column on your list
- 6 Can't find what you're after? Start typing a field name here to search the list
- ④ Set the default order of your columns. This is useful when ever you clear a view in your list, it will assume the order you have set. Any numbers in the Sort Order column that are the same will appear in alphabetical order. In this example 9999 is set to alphabetical order
- Click the Save button once you're done. Your list will refresh, and the columns you selected will be displayed.

You can edit the Field Label if you like. You might do this to abbreviate a long field name. Your changes are only visible on this list, and they will not affect any other part of the system.

Check the Display 'Advanced' Columns box to show additional information for each field. You might need to use this option to differentiate between several fields from your register that have the same label; in which case, you could determine which is which by referring to the Field Name column, which contains the unique name of that field in the database.

Change the order of your columns

Simply click and drag a column header to a new spot to rearrange your columns. When you see the two white arrows, you can release your mouse button. The system remembers your changes as you go.

Adjust the widths of your columns

Once you have your columns in their desired order, you can adjust their widths to make the best use of the space available on your screen. We recommend adjusting them from left to right.

Put your mouse cursor on the line the separates each column. Click and drag left to right to adjust as needed.

Once you have adjusted all the column widths as desired, click the save icon $\overleftarrow{\mathbf{H}}$ in the toolbar to save your changes.

Note that the save icon only appears in the toolbar after you've started adjusting the width of your first column.

Sort your list

Click on a column heading to sort your records by values in that column.

The arrow represents whether you are sorting in ascending or descending order.

The column you sort by will always be remembered on this list.

Text: Filter tests that can be used against data fields

Numbers: Filter tests that can be used against date / time / numeric fields

Note: When filtering your list that is a multi-select field, you must use the "contains" filter and not "equal". The reason for this is the way the values are stored behind the scenes and for technical reasons that you won't be able to see

Type the desired value and press Enter on your keyboard. Your list will then only display matching records:

• You set the width of the columns you have chosen to display on your list. By default, if any individual cell contains more information than can be shown, the information will be truncated, and an ellipsis displayed instead.

Enabling this setting will force the content to be displayed; information in the fields will wrap instead of being truncated.
